

CACFP Roundtable Ethics Policy

Each year, the CACFP Roundtable's Directors, staff, sponsors, and contracted partners affirm and sign their commitment to uphold the highest standards of ethical and professional behavior, including the responsibility to:

- Hold paramount the safety, health, and welfare of the public in the performance of professional duties.
- Act in such a manner as to uphold and enhance personal and professional honor, integrity, and dignity of the profession and the CACFP Roundtable organization.
- Treat with respect and consideration all persons, regardless of race, religion, gender, abilities, age, national origin, geography, or any other socially-constructed identifier.
- Demonstrate respect and professionalism toward all individuals in their professional capacity, regardless of their position, the company or organization they represent, or their relationship to our industry (including partners, competitors, and collaborators).
- Engage in carrying out the CACFP Roundtable's mission in a professional manner.
- Collaborate with and support other professionals in carrying out the CACFP Roundtable's mission.
- Build professional reputations on the merit of services and refrain from competing unfairly with others.
- Disclose any relationships, interests, or situations that might result in or appear to be an actual, apparent, or potential conflict of interest.

A handwritten signature in black ink.

Feb 2, 2026

Elyse Homel Vitale
CEO & Executive Director
CACFP Roundtable

A handwritten signature in blue ink.

Feb 2, 2026

Kellie Konysky
Chair, Board of Directors
CACFP Roundtable